

INFORMATION LETTER

“ACHIEVEMENTS, INNOVATIONS, TECHNOLOGIES AND PROSPECTS FOR THE DEVELOPMENT OF AGRICULTURAL SCIENCE AND THE TEXTILE INDUSTRY”

INTERNATIONAL SCIENTIFIC AND PRACTICAL SYMPOSIUM DEDICATED TO 100th ANNIVERSARY OF THE INSTITUTE.

(August 17-18, 2022)

ONLINE / ONSITE

Organized by:

“Cotton Breeding, Seed Production and Agrotechnologies Research Institute”, Tashkent, Uzbekistan

The symposium will be associated with the disclosure of scientific and practical achievements of innovation, technology, as well as the prospects for the development of agricultural science and the textile industry. During the symposium, special attention is paid to highlighting the issues, solutions and results of research carried out by local and foreign researchers.

The problems brought up for discussion at the Symposium should have a great theoretical and practical importance, the solution of which will improve the economic efficiency of agriculture and the textile industry not only in Uzbekistan, but also in the cotton production worldwide.

The primary topics:

- Section 01. Gene pool of agricultural crops;
- Section 02. General and molecular genetics, biotechnology;
- Section 03. Breeding, seed production, plant production and plant protection;
- Section 04. General and irrigated agriculture. Cotton and grain production;
- Section 05. Melioration and resource-saving technologies;
- Section 06. Agrochemistry and soil science;
- Section 07. Agricultural machinery;
- Section 08. The textile industry;
- Section 09. Informatics and technology;
- Section 10. Engineering;
- Section 11. Energy;
- Section 12. Economics.

Official dates:

Deadline for submission of paper: 1 July 2022.
Confirmation of paper acceptance 10 July 2022.
Date of the Symposium – 17-18 August 2022.
